

SHAPING GLOBALIZATION

Economic Consequences and Policy Responses

International Workshop for Early Career Economists*

Mainz, 14-15 December 2023

Call for Papers

*Funding by the Dr. Hans Riegel-Stiftung is gratefully acknowledged

Topics:

- International trade policy
- Tax policy and multinational activities of firms
- Income effects and redistribution policies
- Environmental policy in a globalized world

Goals:

- Improve our understanding of the interaction between economic effects and policy design in a globalized world
- Allow for a fruitful scientific exchange between young researchers and a renowned keynote speaker
- Enhance the network of junior researchers who specialize on international economic policy questions

Keynote Speaker:

- Kalina Manova, University College London

Organizers:

- Miriam Kohl (Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz)
- Philipp M. Richter (University of Mannheim)
- Florian Unger (Georg-August-Universität Göttingen)

Organization & Schedule:

- Start: Thursday, December 14, 2023
- End: Friday, December 15, 2023
- No conference fee.
- Participants have to cover their own travel and accommodation costs.

Please send your paper by September 30, 2023 to miriam.kohl@uni-mainz.de